

Shelly Linhardt

Address: 1818 Route M • Wardsville, MO 65101

Email: linhardt.shelly@gmail.com • Phone: (573) 291-8003

Professional Summary

Energetic, innovative educator with experience in secondary education. Proven leadership in mentoring district teachers. Skilled in fostering positive relationships with staff, students, and community stakeholders. Committed to enhancing education through collaborative efforts, curriculum development, and professional growth initiatives.

Professional Experience

Family and Consumer Sciences Teacher | 2018–present

Osage Middle School — Lake Ozark, MO

- Created and delivered differentiated lessons in the areas listed below, as well as personal development and personal finance for classes of 10-25 students.
- Managed and maintained department budget of about $2,500.

Capital City High School

Lewis and Clark Middle School — Jefferson City, MO

- Created and delivered differentiated lessons in the areas of foods and nutrition, child development, fashion merchandising, interior design, and textiles for classes of 10–30 students.
- Led collaboration with new family and consumer science teachers and long term subs to train on curriculum delivery and equipment, demonstrating leadership in program implementation.
- Led family and consumer sciences advisory committee meetings which included district family and consumer sciences teachers and community stakeholders.
- Managed and maintained departmental budgets of about $10,000 annually, aligning resources with program needs.
- Participated in curriculum revisions and committees focused on building technology and instructional strategies, supporting program quality and integration.
- Developed common assessments for use by all family and consumer teachers.
- Collaborated with building stakeholders regarding class offerings according to enrollment numbers and DESE recommendations.
- Served as FCCLA Adviser, coordinating extracurricular activities and leadership development for students—highlighting ability to promote student engagement and leadership.
- Secured departmental funding through competitive DESE grant initiatives.

Science and Literacy Teacher | 2009–2018

Thomas Jefferson Middle School — Jefferson City, MO

- Developed and delivered differentiated lessons in reading and science.

- Participated in curriculum development committee, contributing to list of instructional strategies, pacing guide, and common assessments to support diverse student needs.
- Collaborated with staff for instructional planning and student assessment, fostering a team-oriented environment.

Owensville Middle School — Owensville, MO

- Developed and delivered differentiated lessons in reading and science.
- Contributed to curriculum evaluation and development efforts, including the district data team, to improve student learning outcomes.
- Administered assessments and interpreted results to guide instruction.

Education

Missouri University — Columbia, MO Ed. Specialist, Learning Technologies and Design | 2023 - Present (In Progress)

William Woods University — Fulton, MO Master of Education, Administration | 2011

Lincoln University — Jefferson City, MO Bachelor of Science, Elementary Education | 2009

Additional Certifications

Library Media Specialist | 2024

Early Childhood Education | 2022

Family and Consumer Sciences Certification | 2018

Professional Development & Committee Involvement

Building Culture Committee Member | 2023 - 2024

Member of MoACTE & MoEFCS | 2018 - 2023

Curriculum Revisions Committee Member | 2018 - present

Building Technology Committee Member | 2017- 2018

Building BIST (Behavior Intervention Support Team) Committee Member | 2015 - 2018